Biography of Missionary Sarah M. Dobbs

Sis Sarah M. Dobbs is a native Washingtonian. She is the daughter of the late Bishop J.B. Dobbs and the late Carrie B. Dobbs. Sis Sarah has 11 siblings which consist of 4 sisters and 7 brothers. Sarah was raised and born in the Apostolic Holiness Church, formerly known as Bethel Church of God 7th Day, in Baltimore Maryland, under her father. Sarah was baptized and filled with the Holy Spirit in 1974.

Throughout the years, she has served in several capacities within the church, such as Children's Bible Class Teacher, served on youth committee, building fund committee and benevolence committee.

After the sudden passing of her father Sarah continued serving faithfully under the successor, Pastor James K. Thomas. She also worked under Bishop Theodore Jones ministries for 3 years. She would lead the devotional service, prayer leader and assist with teaching the adult bible class.

Sarah has a special gift with young people She love working with the youth.

The youth is a part of her life. On January 2011 she went with minister Dobbs Sr. her brother at
