

Missionary

Sarah M. Dobbs

Missionary Sarah M. Dobbs is a native Washingtonian. She is the daughter of the late Bishop J.B. Dobbs and the late Carrie B. Dobbs. Missionary Dobbs is one of twelve children, consisting of four sisters and seven brothers.

She was raised and born in the Apostolic Holiness Church, formerly known as Bethel Church of God Seventh Day, located in Baltimore, Maryland, under the leadership of her father, Bishop J.B. Dobbs. In 1974, she was baptized and filled with the Holy Spirit.

Throughout the years, Missionary Dobbs has served faithfully in several capacities within the church, including Children's Bible Class Teacher, and as a member of the Youth Committee, Building Fund Committee, and Benevolence Committee.

After the passing of her father, she continued serving faithfully under his successor, Pastor James K. Thomas. She also served under Bishop Theodore Jones for three years, where she led devotional services, served as a prayer leader, and assisted in teaching the Adult Bible Class.

Missionary Dobbs has a special gift for working with young people her passion for youth ministry is evident in her dedication and love for guiding and nurturing them in their spiritual growth. The youth are truly a part of her life and calling.

In January 2011, Missionary Sarah Dobbs joined her brother ministry Bethel Stand For Life Outreach Ministries. Currently Missionary Dobbs serves under the leadership of Pastor David Sr., where she continues to serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in ministry today.